

DIRECTIONS: For each of the situations provided, identify if you would go to the local government, state government, or federal government.

You are opposing the new construction of a park in your hometown. _____	You find a new federal taxation law to be unfair. _____	You believe that a new city ordinance on speeding is long overdue. _____
Your state permits the death penalty and you oppose it. _____	You believe that immigration law needs to be changed. _____	You would like a bike lane constructed on a busy street. _____
You would like a tour of the US Capitol Building. _____	You would like your hometown to consider hosting a town fair. _____	You disagree with the government's use of military force overseas. _____
You would like your city to consider a new recycling policy. _____	You dislike the standardized tests that your school requires. _____	You believe that the General Assembly should pass a law requiring helmets for motorcyclists. _____
You believe that the graduation requirements for high school should be altered. _____	You want a stop sign added to a busy intersection. _____	You do not like how much of the federal budget is spent on the interstate highway system. _____